NOTICE (CORRIGENDUM)

Esteemed HODs are requested to take note of the following important modifications/changes made in the notification of 21/04/2020 regarding online internal assessment process in consultation with hon'ble Vice Chancellor, BU and Academic Registrar (i/c).

1. The nature and structure of Question Paper for UG (CBCS) 2nd semester classes will be as follows:
  - (i) For each paper of Honours and Regular including AECC paper, the full marks will be 10 instead of 30 as notified earlier.
  - (ii) The questions should be essay type or long answer type answers not found directly in textbooks.
  - (iii) The teacher (Paper Setter) may give home assignment of Essay/Article writing or Report writing on any topics of current importance like Coronaviruses, Viruses and Bacteria, Epidemic and Pandemic, COVID-19, Assam and COVID-19, Pollution of our Atmosphere by Human Activities, Testing for COVID-19, Policies in the Time of COVID -19, Effect of COVID-19 on economy etc. which he/she deems fit in lieu of usual syllabus-based questions for internal assessment of the students for the paper concerned.
2. For PG 2nd semester classes the full marks for each paper will be of 20 marks comprising of two questions each carrying 10 marks.
  - (i) The teacher may incorporate a task of Book Review or Article/Essay writing on any topic as mentioned in 1(iii) which he/she deems fit in lieu of usual syllabus-based questions for internal assessment of the students for the paper concerned.
  - (ii) The choice of nature of questions or home assignments will be completely at the discretion of the Paper Setter.
3. The last date of uploading the questions in the university website is rescheduled at 28/04/2020.
4. There will be no change in the nature and structures of the question papers of UG (non CBCS) 4th & 6th semesters and PG 4th semester.

The inconvenience caused (if any) is regretted. Kind cooperation of all concerned is solicited.
